

Cuckmere Pathfinder Project Officer

GRADE: NJC Scale M1/M2, £27849 - 32800
LOCATION: County Hall, Lewes, East Sussex

The County Council has a unique opportunity for an experienced environmental project manager to deliver a project that will help to determine the long-term management of the internationally-recognised Cuckmere Estuary, located in the Seven Sisters Country Park. The role will entail extensive community engagement to develop a consensus on preferred solutions for the estuary, and managing consultants and contractors. You will have a relevant science degree, outstanding written and verbal communication skills, a strong track record in project management, and a thorough knowledge of coastal management and climate change.
